I recommend the books highly to all Dragonlance fans. Please keep in mind that you should read the novels first. Otherwise, keeping track of the action in the stories could be difficult. One unfortunate note is that Time of the Twins may be the only volume published in graphic format from Legends.

Dragonlance Legends: Time of the Twins, War of the Twins ...

What would have made Time of the Twins better? I have no complaints about the book or series in general. They're well written for the intended audience and I still love to visit the world of Krynn as an adult. What other book might you compare Time of the Twins to and why? Any dragonlance series. How did the narrator detract from the book?

Time Of The Twins Dragonlance

This, the beginning of the "Twins" trilogy of books, is able to capture the reader and pull him into the world of Dragonlance. Despite its being a fantasy novel, it has very well-developed characters, including an overweight warrior and his evil twin, whom a reader can actually relate to.
